Gentlemen,

To keep you up to date with the DCS issue, the impact to our family has been sever. We have heard that Jack and I still need to be interviewed. Dorothy-Jane now lives in virtual panic. On Wednesday she went to church while I stayed with a few ill kids. She was nervous about what was happening to our kids, who was watching, etc. It was not a joy to celebrate with those of like mind, but a time to be anxious.

Julia has requested that she can go to the Wednesday event yesterday and again next week. She expressed that her interest after that lessens as she would be moving to the next age group. Her understanding is that the mentality of the group changes and it is not as attractive.

With the above and similar issues to Julia's I am seriously pondering making a formal exit from the Covenant Presbyterian.

Your thoughts and prayers will be appreciated.
