Chris,

Thank you for your reply. It was my understanding, at least on the part of my kids, that they are at Meadowview. Would you please help me understand. Do they attend, occasionally attend, or have they not been a part of Meadowview since their return to Lexington?

If they are members elsewhere, would you be willing to enlighten me.

My wife has refused to speak with me for over two years, irrespective of my pleas.

There has been no sexual indiscretion, no acts of violence or threats thereof, and no direct response to my appeal to Scripture. A recent as June my wife wrote of reconciliation. Today I see divorce papers. On June 23rd she wrote "I'm afraid I might not be the kind of person with whom you are hoping to reconcile." It concerned me greatly what might be behind this, not only for her but for our kids.

It has been over two years, but I remain committed to her and her alone and I want her back. Whatever help you can be, I would be most appreciative.

Respectfully,

John Kozlowski

John,

I am truly sorry to read your news. Dorothy Jane is not a member at Meadowview. I continue to pray regularly for the healing of your home.

Chris,

I just received a formal legal petition for divorce from my wife. Since she is apparently a member at your church I formally request your intervention and as appropriate disciplinary action as she has no just cause to abandon the marriage she has committed to before the Lord. I contend that his whole affair is an offense to the Lord and should not be looked on lightly.

Respectfully,
