DJ,

Thank you so much for putting the effort into your email. It is a lot to digest and I want to review it well so I hear you as best I can.

While I do that I think you should know a couple things from your first few lines.

You wrote: "I am a person. And I was content to not receive a card on my birthday." Below is an image of the card I sent you for your birthday. I'm really disappointed to hear that you did not get it. I don't forget your birthday. I also sent an email that day with the subject "Question on stock offer". It took a month to get a response.

You also wrote: "I am the mother of your children. And I was content to not receive a mother's day card from you." Because there seems to be an offense when I sent a card, I sent a video via email that day and it is on the discs and tablets as "Kozlowski-2016-05-05;Happy Mothers Day". I'm trying to communicate with you and show you my love. It is hard when it seems whatever I try it is an offense. I will try anyway.

I'm afraid that our miscommunications is being amplified by the lack of communications. I will read and reread what you wrote. I want to hear you.

I love you!
