Subject: A simple reminder

Mr. Cross,

Please also remember that some time ago I apologized to you because I was under the mistaken assumption that the tension between us during the time of our move to Chattanooga was from you. Rather I found it was sourced by my wife and I simply did not know.

You assume I know so much from Dorothy-Jane, but it appears she has been unwilling to communicate with me, perhaps from the beginning.

I can hear what I'm not told. I desire that to change for the better. Both parties must be willing.

Respectfully,

John Kozlowski
