Mr. Cross,

Thank you for taking the time to respond to one of my numerous emails. It is worth noting that you have not responded to emails to you, but to one addressed to my kids. Would you inform me if my kids, the party to whom the email was addressed, ever got to read or hear the mail or view the attached video?

It should be easy to see to anyone who has read the emails between us or viewed the videos now online that you are taking my words and trying to use them as an attack on me. You call me the one who mocks? Please note that again I offer specific evidence and you offer generalities. I open the door to direct communications, and you offer innuendo. I offer specific Scripture and apply it, you allude to it but do not handle it directly.

You state that "I have this against you" as you are heading out to church. If I understand Mat 5:24 correctly my priority now is to reconcile with you before I make my offering at the altar. Please note that I am responding within the hour of your email and making no offering at any altar. You write that you are on the way to church. Going from the history of what I have seen of you, I'm assuming that you will be making an offering. Do you notice anything here?

You have been requested to again get on the phone with me and after at least half a year have not even answered the question. Are you making an offering today?

You are part of the "team" that closed the door of communications between my family and me. You acted as the "Great Firewall of Lexington" as previously described. I don't think this "team" can be called rescuers, but rather kidnapers.

Please again refer to the multiple times I have pointed out that going to the state is not in obedience to the Lord as described in 1Co6. Would you address that specifically please?

Since it seems you have abandoned my often mentioned 1Co7:11, i.e. spitting in the face of the Lord, are you also ignoring the mandate the state set? Consider that financially I have been providing the required funds each month for years. The amount is in excess of what it should be since Julia is no longer a dependent, but I do not pursue adjustment with the state because I actually believe in 1Co6.

The state stipulates that I can communicate via phone with my kids at least twice a week. I have a year of voicemails, most of which are now online (<http://family.kozlowski.org/Voicemail>). Who is not loving my kids?

The state stipulates that I am to be part of my kids' educational and medical concerns. What communications has occurred on this in years? Why was a father's written refusal of consent for surgery ignored? Isn't this a violation of the state law you bow to?

Your closing paragraph is a generalized attack without a single specific issue. It may seem like you are standing on solid ground, but please note that it is only hot air. I have offered many specifics, including in this email. Please consider doing the same.

Let me repeat my request. Get on the phone with me. Let's take man-to-man. Even better, let's talk brother-to-brother. Are you willing?

I suggest the recent "Children of War 3" at <http://family.kozlowski.org/2017-08-29+1> is very applicable. The mentioned video, "Reconcile Salvo 1 • I want my kids to know", is at <http://family.kozlowski.org/2017-09-02+1>

Please note, this email can be found at: <http://family.kozlowski.org/Email-2017-09-03+1>. Salvo 2 is planned for this evening.

Respectfully,

John Kozlowski

John,

Before I head out to church this morning I will advise you that I have this against you.

You mock those who are part of the team that has rescued your family from a man who ignored their physical and (according to some of them) their emotional needs. In so doing you are spitting in the face of the One who gave you the ability to properly father them and who has given strength and fortitude to those you mock.

The Lord gave you many opportunities to care for your family while they were your responsibility, and I will remind you that I personally put a letter in your hand the day I picked them up from you that spelled out a path of renewal and reconciliation.

You have ignored your responsibility to this very day and yet have the audacity to tell the world how righteous you are (seeking reconciliation) while at the same time resisting reconciliation due to your own lack of willingness to lay down your life for your family.

This is a call for you to turn from your wicked and foolish ways. Repent! Humble yourself and turn from your wicked ways. Quit your "holy talk" and start living a holy life.

Your friend,
Jim

You need to repent of your sin rather than

George, Susanna, Gloria-Jane, Walter, and Zadok, plus Jack, Isaac, and Julia,

An email was sent last Sunday where I stated that “I am not playing at this”. It is my desire that you understand why. Therefore consider a 16 minute investment with: <http://family.kozlowski.org/2017-09-02+1>. While it is online, a low resolution copy is attached.

This is done in video form so that my younger kids will be able to see their dad and have a greater understanding of what is happening. It is my hope that they will see this video soon.

I love you all.
