Greetings,

I'm a day late in my email due to a series of hikes I took yesterday totaling 29 miles. I was tired.

Over a year ago I started sending videos instead of just emails to make editing more apparent, and to allow my kids to see and more clearly understand their dad. There was a concern expressed that if I simply had them online the fact that they are viewed would be known by me since I run the video server. Well it is true that I know that what videos and emails are viewed, and they are indeed being seen by people in North Carolina, Tennessee, and Georgia. Who it is I don't know. I lack the resources of Google, Apple, and the NSA (sorry that is redundant). While I know the viewing occurs, I have purposely deleted my records to at least reduce the "Big Brother" syndrome.

A way around this is to send a low resolution copy of the video in the email so it can be viewed without my knowing if it ever happens. This email includes such a video. The full resolution video "Torture, Pastors, Elders, and Reconciliation" is online at <http://family.kozlowski.org/2017-09-14+1>.

You will note from the video that this is not a light and fluffy subject. It is being taken seriously as is my effort to reconcile with institutional church leaders, extended family, and my wife. As stated before, I'm not playing at this.

Since my recent effort started, Render Caines and Chris Bitterman have not responded, nor any of the leadership of their churches. It seems they find my exposition of Matthew 5:24 wrong, or they have found something that make it not applicable in our case and find no need to inform me of why. Please consider asking them that question directly. If you get a response, I would like to know. We will keep that private between us.

The <http://Family.Kozlowski.org> website continues to grow and mature. It is the evidence that my effort is serious. I hope you will find it is from a man attempting to be obedient to the Lord Jesus Christ. I hope you will find love in it.

Please forward this to whomever you see fit. In a week or two I plan on expanding the audience. Your suggestions are welcome. Again, I'm not playing at this. I don't want my kids to be influenced by institutions where love is not present.

Respectfully,

John Kozlowski
