Greetings,

On October 14, 2017 I released a video titled "Marriage, Divorce, Remarriage, Adultery, Mercy" (<http://family.kozlowski.org/2017-10-14+2>). This week I had the great joy of taking a 4 day vacation with a friend for the first time in years. During that time we spent at least 8 hours a day hammering each other on the Scripture. This included a review of the video.

We did not find an issue with the use of the verses, but did find that an impression on remarriage could be misunderstood. The attached 9½ minute video is an attempt to clear that up.

It also addresses Ephesians 5:22-33 which was fascinating and encouraging.

There is also a discussion of Hebrews 13:5 "I will never leave you nor forsake you" and my commitment to live it.

Finally there is a mention of 1st Peter 3:15 "always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you" and wondering where is the hope in the leadership of Covenant Presbyterian Church and Meadowview Presbyterian Church? A response is welcomed.

Your further comments are welcome and will remain private for the non-principles.

Matthew 5 ²³*So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, ²⁴leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift."*

Gentlemen, your brother has something against you.
