Subject: About my vacation

DJ,

I wanted to share with you a few things about my vacation. The hiking was only fair, the food was good, it was very quiet, and the conversation was outstanding.

I was essentially the chef for our four days, and I think my skill level has improved. Chris built a fire for us to sit outside one evening as we eat our meal. It was a pleasant evening, but we both lamented that it would have been so much better if our ladies were with us. We are both committed to the only ladies the Lord has granted us.

For your reference when we went on an attempt to hike at Emery Creek Trail, we stopped at overlook and took some pictures. The one below is of us. I am the guy on the right.

We went only a short way on the trail. To continue on we would have to cross a creek about 10 times. We found this out after we arrived. It also had many places where we were on a thin walking area on the side of a cliff. This is not something I have ever been comfortable with, so we abandoned our attempt. I can now do marathon distances and 4.5 mile per hour speeds on my way to 5MPH, but cliffs are not my gift.

We had wonderful conversations on marriage, giving, institutions, and how to love our neighbor. One of the greatest joys about our conversations is that one of us would bring up an idea or verse and then we looked it up in various translations and often studied some of the original Greek or Hebrew words. We challenged each other to prove from Scripture any statement we made. We did it as brothers since our shared goal was to know the Lord's ways and not our own. I so want to encourage our kids to do the same.

The wonderful thing about conversing as we did is that Chris often brought up a perspective or insight that brought great joy and encouragement on the veracity of Scripture and the significance of marriage as a reflection of the relationship between Christ and His elect. My joy in knowing the Lord has increased all the more as has my commitment to you.

I love you!
