Family,

I have found myself being effectively a surrogate dad to many in their teens and 20s. The amount of heartache I find is tremendous and it seems the Lord has allowed me to offer a bit of encouragement and grace to many. It is a role I cherish. However, as you might expect, I am more than concerned about my own kids.

As I have matured, I find the call of the follower of the Lord Jesus Christ is to lovingly contend; proclaim, but not impose, clearly, boldly, and openly; to reconcile, even with those how fight against it; and for a husband to love his wife, which I remain fully committed to.

In the past three decades I have found that as my understanding of Scripture increased, my acceptance in the world decreased, see John 15, and 17. However, I found this also to be true in the institutional church and for years did not understand why. Through study, dialog, and the Lord opening my eyes, I now understand how this is consistent.

From this understanding there are numerous things you can draw. I ask you to view the attached video and consider the question.

To George, Susanna, Gloria-Jane, Walter, and Zadok,

I am asking each of you to watch this video. I am further asking that you respond to me individually with a short note about the video. If you want to dialog via email or phone, that would also be great.

To be clear, I am asking for this of you specifically in order to expand the library of evidence that you are being kept from me in violation of the law of the Lord and the law of the state.

This is allow you, sometime in the future, to know that your dad attempted all the days of his life to reach you, to reconcile the family, and to follow the Lord.

I love you all, and really hope to hear from you!
