Mr. Cross,

When I interact with my friend Mike who is 73 I see a bit of both you and me. While I did not seek this out, there are now five Mormons who are a part of my life, and as a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ I must proclaim to them the truth with complete patience (2Tim4). To do so I have invested many hours in the study of Mormonism from the Mormon perspective. It is a false doctrine, but the people involved are my neighbors (Lev 19:18, Luk 10:37).

Tuesday I sat in a public café with three Mormons who cling to their doctrine and were willing to back it up. They came to that café knowing that they were meeting someone who was going to offer a serious challenge to them. I was humored Saturday when speaking with the woman who was there and said that the two Mormon “Elders” were dealing with “someone above their pay grade.” But they have my respect that they were willing. Why are you not willing?

Do you not believe in the Lord Jesus Christ? Do you not know that belief is demonstrated by trust? Do you not know that if you don't trust Him that He calls you a liar? Do you not know his command to reconcile? Do you not know His command to love? I think you do know all of this. It is time for you to live it.

I remain your son-in-law. If you are indeed a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ, then I remain your brother. Treat me like one, please!

A low resolution copy of today's video is attached. The full resolution versions of both are linked below. I plan to send a disc to Walter today that will have the videos on them. One of the reasons the disc was delayed is to make sure you have Tuesday's video.

I am purposely making lots of copies of these videos. Besides Google, even Baidu in China has copies of the videos. One day my kids, your grandkids might see some of them. Will they be celebrating that we reconciled, or lament that you refused? It is not an easy question to ponder. It could be a remarkable joy. It is in your hands.
