George,

It was with great joy that I got an email from you. It is very sad the way things are. I too, so very much desire to be a family again. It takes more than you and me.

When I came back from a hike today your email arrived. It was only a few minutes and I responded in video form. While the video was processing I did another specifically for Jim Cross. Both videos are online and yours is attached.

My assumption is that you will not see this email or the video because it will be blocked from you. But it is there, as are the many hours of voicemails, videos, and emails. I have been trying to reconcile the family. I hope we can try together!

George, my son, I love you!
