George,

You have been very much on my mind since your email yesterday. I wanted to be perhaps a bit clearer on what I said in the video yesterday, so you have a video today. I hope you see my love for you in it.

Others know about the <http://Family.Kozlowski.org> site and many comments have been made about my tenacity in seeking a reconciled family. If you want to see a dad who loves his kids and a husband who loves his wife, take some time to look at the site. It will take many hours to see it all, and consider even how much more time it took to put it together, you can be confident that your dad is striving for a reconciled family!

Please watch my just under 10 minute video either attached or linked below. You can notice in the photo from the video that above the microwave are photos of you. They have been there since the day I moved in almost two years ago. Of course, the photo of my wife has the prominent position. This is shown clearly with:

Thinking more about George

You were invited to join me on a hike up Big Frog Mountain that I did for my birthday earlier this year. A video, “Big Frog Mountain – We did it!” will give you an idea of the joy we had. You might also notice my comment when we got to the top. It shows where my heart is.

There are over 150 views of the video, including someone in Europe that I dialoged a bit about it. Please consider joining me on a hike there or something similar.

When you consider my relationship with the Lord and my love for you consider the video I did in January: “George – Pre-Birthday – Christian Dads, Can you say this?” It is linked below and it was put on Bitchute in May. It has been viewed over 100 times. Have you seen it? Do you know about it? I did attempt to inform you. So many of the things you mentioned are in the video that is almost a year old.

Perhaps the most important is “Marriage Defined and a Commitment Beyond” which has been seen a combined total of over 300 times. Have you seen it? Do you know anyone who has? Can you see in it wise and graceful handling of the Scripture? Do you see in it my love for my kids? Do you see in it my love for my wife? Do you see in it my love for the Lord?

Please let me know more about you, your joys and your struggles. Please email me again your thoughts about what has been set before you. Please let me know that you got these things and that it was not kept from you. I have asked for this in the past and have not received a response. Do you understand my concern?

George, I remain your dad. As I have stated for so many years, my home is your home, you are always invited.

I love you George. And please remember, I love your mom too!
