Jim Cross – Render Caines – Chris Bitterman – And others
Gentlemen,

Below is an email sent to my 18-year-old son George and attached is the related video. Just past two minutes into the video you were unambiguously mentioned when I proclaimed that the Bible is true and the institutional church is a fraud. It explains the cost you would pay if you were to contend with me on that question and I assume you still won't.

In the last couple weeks I had the joy of sitting down with three Mormons, which included two "elders". We had a respectful dialog but do not share the same Lord. Talking later with the third I was told that the reason I probably will not hear from them again was because I was "above their pay grade."

There have been four videos in the last three days, and if you start with the link below you will see them all. Consider the content of them, the handling of the Scripture, and the positions presented. Am I above your pay grade or do you have the courage to take me on? Careful! That will require love.

Please remember the waterboarding offer is still available (<http://family.kozlowski.org/2017-12-17+1>).

Please also remember I have moved since the last time Meadowview sent the police to shut me up from proclaiming the Lord's command to reconcile. If you need the address for another try, I would be happy to give it. Also please this time give a real law that is violated to the detective that comes. The previous one was not prepared and might not be clear that intimidation like this might be a crime in man's law. But don't worry about what I might do in return since I have read 1st Corinthians 6 and try to practice it.

You might find that there is a satirical tone in this email, or perhaps strong words. A natural man who has been through what I have in the last over seven years would seek vengeance. A man who basks in the grace of the Lord seeks reconciliation. This follower of the Lord Jesus Christ is seeking the latter.

The three of you don't respond to my requests and apparently are unfamiliar with reconciliation. You will find it a term used several times in the Bible. That is the book that you might have a copy of. Look under the pile of dust. If you want some details on reconciliation consider: <http://kozlowski.org/Reconcile>

That I am seeking reconciliation as is abundantly clear if you simply open your eyes. It is also documented at <http://Family.Kozlowski.org>. It will take hours to review it all, but then I just happen to think it is important, or maybe even an act of love. Again that last word can also be found in the Bible. Turn to the third book in the Bible, flip to the nineteenth chapter, and consider reading verse 18. Note that this email is an effort to follow the verse before.

Happy Thanksgiving

George,

You have been very much on my mind since your email yesterday. I wanted to be perhaps a bit clearer on what I said in the video yesterday, so you have a video today. I hope you see my love for you in it.

Others know about the <http://Family.Kozlowski.org> site and many comments have been made about my tenacity in seeking a reconciled family. If you want to see a dad who loves his kids and a husband who loves his wife, take some time to look at the site. It will take many hours to see it all, and consider even how much more time it took to put it together, you can be confident that your dad is striving for a reconciled family!

Please watch my just under 10 minute video either attached or linked below. You can notice in the photo from the video that above the microwave are photos of you. They have been there since the day I moved in almost two years ago. Of course, the photo of my wife has the prominent position. This is shown clearly with:

Thinking more about George

<http://kozlowski.org/2019-02-02+1>

You were invited to join me on a hike up Big Frog Mountain that I did for my birthday earlier this year. A video, “Big Frog Mountain – We did it!” will give you an idea of the joy we had. You might also notice my comment when we got to the top. It shows where my heart is.

There are over 150 views of the video, including someone in Europe that I dialoged a bit about it. Please consider joining me on a hike there or something similar.

When you consider my relationship with the Lord and my love for you consider the video I did in January: “George – Pre-Birthday – Christian Dads, Can you say this?” It is linked below and it was put on Bitchute in May. It has been viewed over 100 times. Have you seen it? Do you know about it? I did attempt to inform you. So many of the things you mentioned are in the video that is almost a year old.

<http://kozlowski.org/2018-12-08+1>

Perhaps the most important is “Marriage Defined and a Commitment Beyond” which has been seen a combined total of over 300 times. Have you seen it? Do you know anyone who has? Can you see in it wise and graceful handling of the Scripture? Do you see in it my love for my kids? Do you see in it my love for my wife? Do you see in it my love for the Lord?

Please let me know more about you, your joys and your struggles. Please email me again your thoughts about what has been set before you. Please let me know that you got these things and that it was not kept from you. I have asked for this in the past and have not received a response. Do you understand my concern?

George, I remain your dad. As I have stated for so many years, my home is your home, you are always invited.

I love you George. And please remember, I love your mom too!
