Dear family,

The Plan

In a long dialog on Scripture and reconciliation today a thought came up and this is my acting on it. The goal was set in my mind to do something to open the door of communications with some or all of my family before the 30th Anniversary of my wife and my marriage.

The Reason

It has been almost 8 years since my wife exited my life. And of course an attempt at obedience to Christ.

What has happened thus far

The first video has been done and the audio is attached. The video is at: <http://Kozlowski.org/2020-03-08+1>

The videos to George can now be found directly from the “Reconcile” button on the Kozlowski.org site, not just the family site (<http://kozlowski.org/Reconcile,George>).

The same is now true of the ones for Jim Cross (<http://kozlowski.org/Reconcile,JimCross>).

The videos for this series will be at: <http://kozlowski.org/Reconcile,30>

Search engines in the US, Europe, and China have been collecting these links and videos for a long time.

Thus far the only response from Jim Cross was last year and it was cold and pitiful. There has been no endurance on his part as there seems to be an absence of love. Love endures. What is it when you give up?

For Your Consideration

There are two things on the table, is the Bible true, and are you interested in reconciliation.

It is clear that some in my family do not believe the Bible is true. You can probably defeat a pastor in that question as most seem not able to engage on that, but can you rationally defeat me? If so, PROVE IT!

Please also remember that I have not been at an institutional church “worship service” in at least three years. Do you know why someone who is a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ would be that way? If your hope is in the institution, you better not ask. If your hope is in the Lord, perhaps I could encourage you.

Some in my family might consider the Bible as both true and authoritative in their lives. I don’t have any reason to think that includes Jim Cross. For anyone who does, LIVE IT! You can start with my often quoted Matthew 5:24. As a reminder:

²³*So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, ²⁴leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.*

The term “brother” is “adelphos”, or not of the womb, which has a meaning ranging from born of the same parents to as wide as anyone on earth. I do qualify at least on the latter (<http://kozlowski.org/Dictionary,Strong,Greek+80>).

If you do the Jim Cross thing and simply repeat the verse back to me and say “I have something against you” and leave the table, you are having trouble understanding what the verse says. Rational dialog might help on that. For reference: <https://www.thefreedictionary.com/rational>

Options

You could try the Meadowview route, but when you sent the police to shut me up, give them at least a hint of an idea of what law I might be violating. Don’t embarrass another cop.

You could try the Jim Cross route, but be aware that the Talmud is much much larger than the Bible and it will take years for serious study. But then serious, or again the word rational, might not apply.

You could try the PCA leadership route and simply stay silent. But what if the Bible is true?

You could also consider love. This is the most costly. It takes a lot of work. Consider the size of <http://Family.Kozlowski.org> and you might get a hint of an idea of the time that might be involved.

Summary

As the Lord allows, expect me daily until May 19th. If the Lord’s plan is magnificent and undeserved grace for our family, expect a celebration.

I love you all!
