Walter and Family,

One of the greatest laments in my life is that I did not invest as much time as I should have in you. There was more time invested in Jack and George, and clearly no opportunity for Zadok. But with you the time that was available I did not use as well as I should have. Please forgive me. I continue to ask for the time to be with you, to get to know you, to share life with you, and to point you to the Lord Jesus Christ.

A quick check shows 16 occurrences of some form of "be strong and courageous" in the Bible. But take courage in doing what? I contend it is living out the two greatest commandments, to love the Lord and love your neighbor. Remember it is impossible to do only one, such as seen in 1st John 4:20: "If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen."

It is my hope and prayer for you, Walter, that you grow to be a man, not a wimp. That you will be strong and courageous, and that will be seen in that you know how to love well, irrespective if you see love in return. Consider the verse before the one I quoted "19We love because he first loved us." It is a ridiculously difficult thing to do. Do it anyway. When you fail, don't give up, but try again. Be strong and courageous.

Walter, let's spend some time together. I want to know you!

I love you all!
