Family,

I'm sure you started the day wondering about the difference between monolog and dialog and what examples of that we had in Scripture. Well, be of good cheer, the attached video will give you that in depth.

Seriously I hope you find this informative and soundly based on the Scripture. There is a good bit of Greek, but as always, I am not the best reference for pronunciation. However, the exposition of what the words mean, and what they mean in context I contend is accurate.

You might note that there is a comparison to a single case of a monolog in Scripture and what happens so often in various institutions around the world on a typical Sunday. If you think there is more to come on this, you would be right.

I do hope you find this useful and even consider practicing "Dialegomai".

Please feel free to share this or the links with whomever you desire. I plan on it and already have.

I love you all. And of course, as you would expect, please remember to tell my wife I love her!
