Family,

I hope you see by now that I am building a case. The evidence that is set forth would have been such a joy to have been set before me in decades past. I see now where it is done for some, and I must follow in that model, especially for those I love.

Many of the recent videos have had significant substance and I am pondering what to do about them. The thought to this point was to put all of the Reconcile 30 series as a playlist on Brighteon only. Now I am wondering if some of the recent need to be on all three platforms I use, besides Kozlowski.org of course. Your thoughts would be most welcome.

It should be clear that the foundation is being laid. Then the case for "the Bible is true and the institutional church is a fraud" will be made in detail. The specifics about Covenant Presbyterian and Meadowview will either come before or after, I'm still not sure.

I love you all and still desire that you let my wife know that I love her!
