Subject: George - Do you wear a mask? Does the family live in fear?

George, and Family,

I had a face-to-face dialog with three gentlemen over the weekend and the subject of masks, or face diapers, came up. One of the gentlemen was rather adamant about the need and his reason to do so. He did not look at me as one who has never worn a mask as doing the right thing. He pointed to authorities and I pointed to evidence. I wonder if you understand the difference.

I really do wonder how much of my family lives in fear. My assumption, considering the history of the last many years, is that they trust institutional authority, rather than evidence or the Lord. They live in fear, rather than trust in the Lord. They cover behind the institution which subjects them, but do not know how to trust the Lord or love. That is the evidence I see. Anyone care to prove me wrong?

The audio only is attached as it got long.

I love you all.
